Instructions for Recipient

This is important tax information and is being furnished to the Internal Revenue Service. If you are required to file a return, a negligence penalty or other sanction will be imposed on you if this income is taxable and the IRS determines that it has not been reported.

Box 1. Shows the total unemployment compensation paid to you this year. Report this amount as income on the unemployment compensation line of your income tax return.

Box 4. Shows the amount of federal withholding you requested on unemployment compensation, alternative trade adjustment assistance (ATAA), and reemployment trade adjustment assistance (RTAA) payments; if any.

Box 5. Shows the total alternative trade adjustment assistance (ATAA), and reemployment trade adjustment assistance (RTAA) payments; if any.

Box 11. Shows the amount of state withholding you requested on unemployment compensation, alternative trade adjustment assistance (ATAA), and reemployment trade adjustment assistance (RTAA) payments, if any.

For more information see the instructions for your Federal Income Tax Return.
 The Georgia Department of Labor is not able to give information on income tax matters.

Note: Federal and Georgia laws do not require a copy of this form to be filed with your Federal or Georgia state income tax returns. For claimants reporting state income tax for states other than Georgia, please consult your state's relevant tax laws.
