

Notice to Employer
Do you have to file? Refer to the instructions for Forms 1040 and 1040-SR to determine if you are required to file a tax return. Even if you do not have to file a tax return, you may be eligible for a refund if box 3 shows an amount or if you are eligible for any credit.

Employer's credit (ERC). You may be able to take the ERC for 2020 if your adjusted gross income (AGI) is less than a certain amount. The amount of credit is based on income and family size. Workers without children could qualify for a smaller credit. You and any qualifying children must have valid social security numbers (SSNs). You can't take the ERC if your investment income is more than the specified amount for 2020 or if income is earned for services provided while you were a inmate at a penal institution. For 2020 income limits and more information, visit www.irs.gov/ERC. Also see Pub. 796, Employer's Credit. Any ERC that is more than your tax liability is refunded to you, but only if you file a tax return.

Clergy and religious workers. If you aren't subject to social security and Medicare taxes, see Pub. 517, Social Security and Retirement Information for Members of the Clergy and Religious Workers. Corrections. If your name, SSN, or address is incorrect, correct Copies B, C, and 2 and ask your employer to correct your employment record. It may be to ask the employer to file Form W-2-C, Corrected Wage and Tax Statement, with the Social Security Administration (SSA) to correct any name, SSN, or address error reported to the SSA on Form W-2. It may be to get your copies of Forms W-2 from your employer for all corrections made so you may file them with your tax return. If your name and SSN are correct but aren't the ones as shown on your social security card, you should ask for a new card that displays your correct name at any SSA office or by calling 800-772-1213. You may also visit the SSA website at www.ssa.gov.

Cost of employer-sponsored health coverage (if such cost is provided by the employer). The reporting in Box 12, using Code DD, of the cost of employer-sponsored health coverage is for your information only. The amount reported with Code DD is not taxable. Credit for excess taxes. If you had more than one employer in 2020 and more than $8,537.40 in social security and Tier 1 railroad retirement (RTA) taxes were withheld, you may be able to claim a credit for the excess against your federal income tax. If you had more than one railroad employer and more than $5,022.70 in Tier 2 RTA tax was withheld, you also may be able to claim a credit. See the instructions for Forms 1040 and 1040-SR, and Pub. 505, Tax Withholding and Estimated Tax.

figure the social security and Medicare tax owed on tips you didn't report to your employer. Enter this amount on the wages line of your tax return. By filing Form 4137, your social security tips will be credited to your social security record (used to figure your benefits).

Box 16. This amount includes the total dependent care benefits that your employer paid to you or incurred on your behalf (including amounts from a section 125 (cafeteria) plan). Any amount over $5,000 also is included in box 1. Complete Form 2441, Child and Dependent Care Expenses, to compute any taxable and nontaxable amounts.

Box 11. This amount is (a) reported in box 1 if it is a distribution made to you from a nonqualified deferred compensation or non governmental section 457(b) plan, or (b) included in box 3 and/or 5 if it is a prior year deferral under a nonqualified or section 457(b) plan that became taxable for social security and Medicare taxes this year because there is no longer a substantial risk of forfeiture of your right to the deferred amount. This box shouldn't be used if you had a deferral and a distribution in the same calendar year. If you made a deferral and received a distribution in the same calendar year, and you are or will be age 62 by the end of the calendar year, your employer should file Form SSA-131, Employer Report of Special Wage Payments, with the Social Security Administration and give you a copy.

Box 12. The following list explains the codes shown in box 12. You may need this information to complete your tax return. Elective deferrals (codes D, E, F, and G) and designated Roth contributions (codes AA, BB, and BB) under all plans are generally limited to a total of $19,500 ($13,500 if you only have SIMPLE plans, $22,500 for section 408(b) plans if you qualify for the 15-year rule explained in Pub. 571). Deferrals under code Q are limited to $19,500. Deferrals under code II are limited to $7,000.

However, if you were at least age 50 in 2020, your employer may have allowed an additional deferral of up to $6,500 ($3,000 for section 403(b)(1) and 408(b) SIMPLE plans). This additional deferral amount is not subject to the overall limit on elective deferrals. For code Q, the limit on elective deferrals may be higher for the last 5 years before you reach retirement age. Contact your plan administrator for more information. Amounts in excess of the overall elective deferral limit must be included in income. See the instructions for Forms 1040 and 1040-SR.

Note. If a year follows code D through H, Y, AA, BB, or BB, you made a auto-upstream contribution for a prior year(s) when you were in military service. To figure whether you made excess deferrals, consider those amounts for the year shown, not the current year. If no year is shown, the contributions are for the current year.
