The IRS will use your ITIN, along with your full name and date of birth, to identify tax documents, payments, and any other correspondence. Therefore, it's very important that the personal information we have for you is correct.

You don't need to respond to this notice unless your personal information is incorrect.

What you need to do

- Use your full name and ITIN on all correspondence with the IRS, including tax returns, tax payments and refund claims. Using an incorrect name or ITIN may cause processing delays or errors on your account.
- Use your ITIN in place of a Social Security number (SSN) when one is requested on any federal tax document.
- You must use your ITIN on at least one federal income tax return within a three-year period or it will expire.
- Keep this notice for your records.
