Dear SUSHMA,

This letter is to confirm our understanding of the terms of our agreement and outline the nature and extent of services we will provide. Based upon the information you furnish to us, we will prepare your Federal and applicable state income tax returns for 2021.

We will not audit or verify the data you submit to us, although we may ask you for clarification when necessary. All the information you submit to us will, to the best of your knowledge, be correct and complete and include all other information necessary for the completion of your tax return.

We will also prepare 2022 estimated tax vouchers if required, based on your income and withholding taxes for 2021. If you anticipate a substantial change in income or withholding taxes for 2022, please advise us as soon as possible. We will then determine whether an adjustment should be made to your tax estimates.

Your returns are subject to review by the taxing authorities. Any items that may be resolved against you by the examining agent are subject to certain rights of appeal. In the event of an examination, we will be available upon request to represent you, or to review the results of any examination. Billing for these additional services will be at our standard rates.

The charges for our services are based on our fee schedule and the complexity of the returns.

You have the final responsibility for your income tax returns. Please review them carefully before you sign and mail them.

If the above is in accordance with your understanding of the terms and conditions of our agreement, please sign and return a copy of this letter.

RE: Our Privacy Policy, Compliance with the Gramm-Leach-Bliley Act, Public Law 106-102 (FTC 16 CFR Part 313)

Dear SUSHMA,

The privacy of your client information has always been important to us, and we have always been bound by professional standards of confidentiality. However, we are now required by law to formally inform you of our privacy policy.

We collect nonpublic personal information about you that is provided by you or obtained by us with your authorization. This information may come from various sources, including information we receive from personal interviews, tax organizers, worksheets and other documents necessary to provide professional services to you.

We do not disclose any nonpublic personal information about our clients or former clients to anyone, except as permitted or required by law, or when necessary to process transactions requested by a client.

We restrict access to nonpublic personal information about you to members of our firm who need to know that information in order to provide you professional services. We retain records relating to the professional services that we provide you in accordance with accounting and government standards.

We employ physical, electronic, and procedural security safeguards to protect your nonpublic personal information.

Your confidence and trust are important to us. If you have any questions or concerns regarding the privacy of your nonpublic personal information, please contact us.

Sincerely,
