Before you check Box A, B, or C below, see whether you received any Form(s) 1099-B or substitute statement(s) from your broker. A substitute statement will have the same information as Form 1099-B. Either will show whether your basis (usually your cost) was reported to the IRS by your broker and may even tell you which box to check.

Part I Short-Term. Transactions involving capital assets you held 1 year or less are generally short-term (see instructions). For long-term transactions, see page 2.

Note: You may aggregate all short-term transactions reported on Form(s) 1099-B showing basis was reported to the IRS and for which no adjustments or codes are required. Enter the totals directly on Schedule D, line 1a; you aren't required to report these transactions on Form 8949 (see instructions).

2021 Schedule of School District Withholding

Use only black ink/UPPERCASE letters.

Complete a separate schedule for each SD 100 you file that reports school district withholding.

Primary taxpayer's SSN	School District #
100 27 8535	2903

List your and your spouse's (if filing jointly) W-2 and 1099-R forms only if they have school district withholding. Enter "P" in the "P/S" box if the form is the primary taxpayer's and enter "S" if it is the spouse's. If the Ohio ID number on a statement has 9 digits, enter only the first 8 digits. Complete additional copies if necessary. Place state copies of your income statements after the last page of your return.

Important: On occasion, employers will report school district withholding in box 14 of the W-2 instead of the "local" boxes. In this case, enter the school district number and the withholding amount in the appropriate fields and report the Ohio state wages from box 16 as the school district wage amount.

Part III Annualized Income Installment Method Schedule.

Use this schedule ONLY if you earned taxable income at an UNEVEN RATE during 2021 (see Example A). If you earned your income at approximately the same rate each month (see Example B), then you should not complete this schedule. If you choose to figure the penalty, see Worksheet II, Regular Method to Figure Your Underpayment and Penalty, on page 4 of the instructions.

Example A: If you were a commissioned salesperson who earned no income during the first three months of the year, earned most of your income during the following six months, and earned very little during the last three months, you should complete this schedule. You may be able to benefit by using the annualized income installment method. The required installment of estimated tax figured using the annualized method may be less than your required installment figured using the required installment method.

Example B: If you worked all year and earned a monthly salary that did not change much during the year, you should not complete this schedule.

Before you check Box A, B, or C below, see whether you received any Form(s) 1099-B or substitute statement(s) from your broker. A substitute statement will have the same information as Form 1099-B. Either will show whether your basis (usually your cost) was reported to the IRS by your broker and may even tell you which box to check.

Part I Short-Term. Transactions involving capital assets you held 1 year or less are generally short-term (see instructions). For long-term transactions, see page 2.

Note: You may aggregate all short-term transactions reported on Form(s) 1099-B showing basis was reported to the IRS and for which no adjustments or codes are required. Enter the totals directly on Schedule D, line 1a; you aren't required to report these transactions on Form 8949 (see instructions).

You must check Box A, B, or C below. Check only one box. If more than one box applies for your short-term transactions, complete a separate Form 8949, page 1, for each applicable box. If you have more short-term transactions than will fit on this page for one or more of the boxes, complete as many forms with the same box checked as you need.

X (A) Short-term transactions reported on Form(s) 1099-B showing basis was reported to the IRS (see Note above)

(B) Short-term transactions reported on Form(s) 1099-B showing basis wasn't reported to the IRS
