Form IL-1040, Individual Income Tax Return

We received information from the Internal Revenue Service (IRS), under authorization of Internal Revenue Code (IRC), Section 6103(d), for each tax year identified above. Based on this information, we determined that you owe Illinois Income Tax. See the enclosed Form EDA-131, Examiner's Report, and Page 2 of this notice for detailed information on how we determine your liability and how to respond to this notice.

You have 30 days from the date on this notice to respond.

- If the proposed liability is correct and you do not follow the payment instructions on Page 2 of this letter, you may owe additional penalties and interest.
- If you do not respond, we will send you a Notice of Deficiency and assess the tax and any appropriate penalties and interest. The Notice of Deficiency will explain your protest rights if you disagree with the assessment.

Note: You can now submit your support through MyTax Illinois, our online account management program. Support submitted through MyTax Illinois is secure and may help avoid delays associated with information submitted by mail. You can also use MyTax Illinois to check your account balances, view your existing account, or create a new account at mytax.illinois.gov.

If you are currently under the protection of the Federal Bankruptcy Court, see the bankruptcy information on the next page of this notice. Note that this is not an attempt to collect tax. Illinois law requires issuance of this notice to advise you of an amount due or a missing return that must be filed.
