The Internal Revenue Service has agreements with state tax agencies under which information about federal tax, including increases or decreases, is exchanged with the states. If this change affects the amount of your state income tax, you should amend your state return by filing the necessary forms.

You may be subject to backup withholding if you underreport your interest, dividend, or patronage dividend income you earned and do not pay the required tax. The IRS may order backup withholding (withholding of a percentage of your dividend and/or interest payments) if the tax remains unpaid after it has been assessed and four notices have been issued to you over a 120-day period.

Student Loan Interest Deduction

Tax Period	Per Return	Per Exam	Adjustment
2019	$2,500.00	$0.00	$2,500.00

The examination unit of the Internal Revenue Service has performed an examination of your 2019 1040NR tax return to verify your eligibility for Student Loan Interest deduction you claimed on line 33. The resulting tax assessment is shown on Form 4549 (Income Tax Examination Changes). The following is an explanation of our determination.

Student loan interest is interest you paid during the year on a qualified student loan. It includes both required and voluntary interest payments.

·Up to $2,500 in student loan interest paid (federal and private) may be deducted each year. (IRC §221).

A qualified student loan is a loan the taxpayer took out solely to pay qualified higher education expenses that were:

- For taxpayer, taxpayer's spouse, or taxpayer's dependent when the loan was taken out,
- For education provided during an academic period for an eligible student (*), and
- Paid or incurred within a reasonable period before or after the taxpayer took out the loan.

Loans from a related person or a qualified employer plan do not qualify.

Qualified higher education expenses generally include:

Tuition and fees

Room and board

Books, supplies and equipment

The expenses must be for education in a degree, certificate or similar program at an eligible educational institution ().

(*) An eligible student is a student who was enrolled at least half-time in a program leading to a degree, certification, or other recognized educational credential

() All schools eligible to participate in a student aid program administered by the U.S. Dept. of Education. Also includes certain educational institutions located outside the U.S. that are eligible to participate in U.S. Dept. of Education's FSA programs.

Negligence is defined as a failure to make a reasonable attempt to comply with the provisions of the Internal Revenue Code; the failure to exercise ordinary and reasonable care in the preparation of a tax return; Therefore, for the 2019 tax years, you will be held liable for the 20 percent accuracy-related penalty imposed under Section 6662(d) of the Internal Revenue Code.
