Before you check Box A, B, or C below, see whether you received any Form(s) 1099-B or substitute statement(s) from your broker. A substitute statement will have the same information as Form 1099-B. Either will show whether your basis (usually your cost) was reported to the IRS by your broker and may even tell you which box to check.

Part I Short-Term. Transactions involving capital assets you held 1 year or less are generally short-term (see instructions). For long-term transactions, see page 2.

Note: You may aggregate all short-term transactions reported on Form(s) 1099-B showing basis was reported to the IRS and for which no adjustments or codes are required. Enter the totals directly on Schedule D, line 1a; you aren't required to report these transactions on Form 8949 (see instructions).

You must check Box A, B, or C below. Check only one box. If more than one box applies for your short-term transactions, complete a separate Form 8949, page 1, for each applicable box. If you have more short-term transactions than will fit on this page for one or more of the boxes, complete as many forms with the same box checked as you need.

X (A) Short-term transactions reported on Form(s) 1099-B showing basis was reported to the IRS (see Note above)

(B) Short-term transactions reported on Form(s) 1099-B showing basis wasn't reported to the IRS

C) Short-term transactions not reported to you on Form 1099-B

Important: A taxpayer and spouse must complete separate schedules to report their gains or losses or if any amounts are reported on Lines 3 through 10 of PA Schedule D. However, if all the gains and losses were realized on a joint basis, one schedule may be completed. Complete the oval to indicate whether the gains and losses included on the schedule are from the taxpayer, spouse or joint. One spouse may not use a loss to reduce the other spouse's gains. When reporting the sale of jointly owned property that is not reported on a joint PA Schedule D, each must show their share of the sale on their separate PA Schedule D. Read the instructions. Enter all sales, exchanges or other dispositions of real or personal tangible and intangible property, including inherited property. Amounts from Federal Schedule D may not be correct for PA income tax purposes. Nonresidents should read carefully the instructions concerning intangible property. If the result is a loss, fill in the oval next to the line.
