eligible for any credit. Form 1040 instructions to determine if you are required to file a return, you may be eligible for a return if box 2 shows an amount

Earmed Income credit (EIC). You may be able to take the EIC for 2022 if your adjusted gross income (AGI) is less than a certain amount. The amount of the credit is based on income and family size. Workers without children could qualify for a smaller credit. You and any qualifying children must have valid social security numbers (SSNs). You can't take the EIC if your investment income is more than the specified amount for 2022 or if income is earned for services provided while you were an innate at a penal institution, For 2022 income limits and more information, visit www.irs.gov/EITC. See also Pub. 596, Earned Income Credit, Any EIC that is more than your tax liability is refunded to you, but only if you file a tax return.

Employee's social security number (SSN). For your protection, this form may show only the last four digits of your SSN. However, your employer has reported your complete SSN to the IRS and the Social Security Administration (SSA).

Clergy and religious workers. If you aren't subject to social security and Medicare Security and Other Information for Members of the Clergy and Religious Workers. Pub 517, Social Corrections. If your name, SSN, or address is incorrect, correct Copies B, C, and 2 and ask your employer to correct your employment record. Be sure to ask the employer to file Form W-2c, Corrected Wage and Tax. Statement, with the SSA to correct any name, SSN, or money amount error reported to the SSA on Form W-2. Be sure to get your copies of Form W-2c from your employer for all corrections made so you may file them with your fax return. If your name and SSN are correct but aren't the same as shown on your social security card, yo should ask for a new card that displays your correct name at any SSA office or by calling 800-772-1213, You m also visit the SSA website at www.SSA.gov.

Cost of employer-sponsored health coverage (if such cost is provided by the employer). The reporting in box 12, using code DD, of the cost of employer-sponsored health coverage is for your information only. The amount reported with code DD is not taxable.

Credit for excess taxes. If you had more than one employer in 2022 and more than $9,114 in social security and/or flier 1 railroad etilement (RRTA) baxes were withhald, you may be able to claim a credit for the excess against your feederal income tax. See the Form 1040 instructions if you had more than one railroad employer and more than $5,350.80 in Tier 2 RRTA tax was withheld, you may be able to claim a refund on Form 843. See the
