Instructions to Recipient

If you itemized deductions on your federal income tax return for the tax year shown above, retain this form for use in completing your 2022 federal income tax return. See your federal 1040 instruction booklet for more information.

This notice reports the refunds you were allowed during 2022 for the tax year shown above. An overpayment of income tax is considered to be a refund whether it was mailed to you, deposited into your bank account, credited to estimated tax payments, applied to a balance of tax due for a prior year, applied against other debts owed to the State of Oregon or the IRS, contributed to a charitable agency on Schedule OR-DONATE, deposited into an Oregon College Savings Plan, or contributed to a political party.
