Verify that the secondary taxpayer's Social Security Number (SSN) and last name have been entered correctly. Make any necessary corrections and resubmit this return

If there are no data entry errors, contact the Social Security Administration (SSA) at 800-772-1213 to verify that their records are correct. If SSA records are updated, it can take up to four weeks to transfer the updated information to the IRS. Wait four weeks, and then re-file the return.

Note: If SSA information is inaccurate and you do not call to correct the information, you will get the same reject next year.
