Instructions for Participant

This information is submitted to the IRS by the trustee of your health savings account (HSA), Archer medical savings account (MSA), or Medicare Advantage MSA (MA MSA).
Generally, contributions you make to your Archer MSA are deductible. Employer contributions are excluded from your income and aren't deductible by you. If your employer makes a contribution to one of your Archer MSAs, you can't contribute to any Archer MSA for that year. If you made a contribution to your Archer MSA when your employer has contributed, you can't deduct your contribution, and you will have an excess contribution. If your spouse's employer makes a contribution to your spouse's Archer MSA, you can't make a contribution to your Archer MSA if your spouse is covered under a high deductible health plan that also covers you.
Contributions that the Social Security Administration makes to your MA MSA aren't includible in your gross income nor are they deductible. Neither you nor your employer can make contributions to your MA MSA.
Generally, contributions you or someone other than you employer make to your HSA are deductible on your tax return. Employer contributions to your HSA may be excluded from your income and aren't deductible by you. You and your employer can make contributions to your HSA in the same year.
See Form 8853 and its instructions or Form 8889 and its instructions. Any employer contributions made to an Archer MSA are shown on your Form W-2 in box 12 (code R); employer contributions made to an HSA are shown in box 12 (code W). For more information, see Pub. 969.
Participant's taxpayer identification number (TIN). For your protection, this form may show only the last four digits of your social security number (SSN), individual taxpayer identification number (ITIN), adoption taxpayer identification number (ATIN), or employee identification number (EIN). However, the issuer has reported your complete TIN to the IRS.

Account number. May show an account or other unique number the trustee assigned to distinguish your account.
Box 1. Shows contributions you made to your Archer MSA in 2022 and through April 18, 2023, for 2022. You may be able to deduct this amount on your 2022 Form 1040. See the Instructions for Form 1040.
Note: The information in boxes 2 and 3 is provided for IRS use only.
Box 2. Shows the total contributions made in 2022 to your HSA or Archer MSA. See Pub. 969 for who can make contributions. This includes qualified HSA funding distributions (trustee-to-trustee transfers) from your IRA to fund your HSA. The trustee of your MA MSA isn't required to, but may, show contributions to your MA MSA.
Box 3. Shows the total HSA or Archer MSA contributions made in 2023 for 2022.
Box 4. Shows any rollover contribution from an Archer MSA to this Archer MSA in 2022 or any rollover from an HSA or Archer MSA to this HSA. See Form 8853 or Form 8889 and their instructions for information about how to report distributions. This amount isn't included in box 1, 2, or 3.
Box 5. Shows the fair market value of your HSA, Archer MSA, or MA MSA at the end of 2022.

Form 1095-C (2022)

Instructions for Recipient

You are receiving this Form 1095-C because your employer is an Applicable Large Employer subject to the employer shared responsibility provisions in the Affordable Care Act. This Form 1095-C includes information about the health insurance coverage offered to you by your employer. Form 1095-C, Part II, includes information about the coverage, if any, your employer offered to you and your spouse and dependent(s). If you purchased health insurance coverage through the Health Insurance Marketplace and wish to claim the premium tax credit, this information will assist you in determining whether you are eligible. For more information about the premium tax credit, see Pub. 974, Premium Tax Credit (PTC). You may receive multiple Forms 1095-C if you had multiple employers during the year that were Applicable Large Employers (for example, you left employment with one Applicable Large Employer and began a new position of employment with another Applicable Large Employer). In that situation, each Form 1095-C would have information only about the health insurance coverage offered to you by the employer identified on the form. If your employer is not an Applicable Large Employer, it is not required to furnish you a Form 1095-C providing information about the health coverage it offered.

In addition, if you, or any other individual who is offered health coverage because of their relationship to you (referred to here as family members), enrolled in your employer's health plan and that plan is a type of plan referred to as a "self-insured" plan, Form 1095-C, Part III, provides information about you and your family members who had certain health coverage (referred to as "minimum essential coverage") for some or all months during the year. If you or your family members are eligible for certain types of minimum essential coverage, you may not be eligible for the premium tax credit.

If your employer provided you or a family member health coverage through an insured health plan or in another manner, you may receive information about the coverage separately on Form 1095-B, Health Coverage. Similarly, if you or a family member obtained minimum essential coverage from another source, such as a government-sponsored program, an individual market plan, or miscellaneous coverage designated by the Department of Health and Human Services, you may receive information about that coverage on Form 1095-B. If you or a family member enrolled in a qualified health plan through a Health Insurance Marketplace, the Health Insurance Marketplace will report information about that coverage on Form 1095-A, Health Insurance Marketplace Statement.

TIP

Employers are required to furnish Form 1095-C only to the employee. As the recipient of this Form 1095-C, you should provide a copy to any family members covered under a self-insured employer-sponsored plan listed in Part III if they request it for their records.

Additional information. For additional information about the tax provisions of the Affordable Care Act (ACA), the premium tax credit, and the employer shared responsibility provisions, visit www.irs.gov/ACA or call the IRS Healthcare Hotline for ACA questions (800-919-0452).

Line 15. This line reports the employee required contribution, which is the monthly cost to you for the lowest cost self-only minimum essential coverage providing minimum value that your employer offered you. For an individual coverage HRA, the employee required contribution is the excess of the monthly premium based on the employee's applicable age for the applicable lowest cost silver plan over the monthly individual coverage HRA amount (generally, the annual individual coverage HRA amount divided by 12). See the Instructions for Forms 1094-C and 1095-C for more details. Line 16. This code provides the IRS information to administer the employer shared responsibility provisions. A date of birth will be entered in column (c) only if an SSN (or TIN for covered individuals other than the employee listed in Part I) is not entered in column (b). Column (d) will be checked if the individual was covered for at least one day in every month of the year. For individuals who were covered for some but not all months, information will be entered in column (e) indicating the months for which these individuals were covered. If there are more than 13 covered individuals, additional copies of page 3 may be used.
