Important: IRS tax form 1099-SA for your health savings account (HSA)

Dear Pallavi:

This enclosed IRS tax form 1099-SA shows your 2023 distributions from your Optum Bank health savings account (HSA). Please use this information to fill out IRS tax form 8889 which is what you'll need to submit your taxes. To access IRS tax form 8889 log in at irs.gov and navigate to Forms and Publications.

Here's what you need to know:

- Box 1 includes your total distributions for 2023.
- Box 2 shows any earnings on the excess while it was in the account.
- Box 3 shows the distribution code. Different codes will display depending on the situation. Code 1 summarizes all reportable distributions made in 2023. This does not include fees or investment losses as these are not reportable. Code 2 reports any excess contribution corrected that were processed against your account. For all other code descriptions please contact a tax professional.
- Any corrections processed before 1/1/2024 are reflected on this form. However, any corrections processed in 2024 will cause a corrected tax document to be generated.
- If you had any contributions that apply to 2023, you'll also get tax form 5498-SA.

Ready to say goodbye to printed forms? Log in to your account to access your HSA, click "Accounts" from menu bar, select "Account Management" and update your Communications preference to "Online."

Instructions for Recipient

Distributions from a health savings account (HSA), Archer medical savings account (MSA), or Medicare Advantage (MA) MSA are reported to you on Form 1099-SA. File Form 8853 or Form 8889 with your Form 1040 to report a distribution from these accounts even if the distribution isn't taxable. The payer isn't required to compute the taxable amount of any distribution.

An HSA or Archer MSA distribution isn't taxable if you used it to pay qualified medical expenses of the account holder or eligible family member or you rolled it over. An HSA may be rolled over to another HSA; an Archer MSA may be rolled over to another Archer MSA or an HSA. An MA MSA isn't taxable if you used it to pay qualified medical expenses of the account holder only. If you didn't use the distribution from an HSA, Archer MSA, or MA MSA to pay for qualified medical expenses, or in the case of an HSA or Archer MSA, you didn't roll it over, you must include the distribution in your income (see Form 8853 or Form 8889). Also, you may owe a penalty.

You may repay a mistaken distribution from an HSA no later than April 15 following the first year you knew or should have known the distribution was a mistake, providing the trustee allows the repayment.

For more information, see the Instructions for Form 8853 and the Instructions for Form 8889. Also see Pub. 969.

Box 1. Shows the amount received this year. The amount may have been a direct payment to the medical service provider or distributed to you.

Box 2. Shows the earnings on any excess contributions you withdrew from an HSA or Archer MSA by the due date of your income tax return. If you withdrew the excess, plus any earnings, by the due date of your income tax return, you must include the earnings in your income in the year you received the distribution even if you used it to pay qualified medical expenses. This amount is included in box 1. Include the earnings on the "Other income" line of your tax return. An excise tax of 6% for each tax year is imposed on you for excess individual and employer contributions that remain in the account. See Form 5329, Additional Taxes on Qualified Plans (Including IRAs) and Other Tax-Favored Accounts.

Box 3. These codes identify the distribution you received: 1— Normal distribution; 2—Excess contributions; 3—Disability; 4— Death distribution other than code 6; 5—Prohibited transaction; 6— Death distribution after year of death to a non-spouse beneficiary.

Box 4. If the account holder died, shows the FMV of the account on the date of death.

Box 5. Shows the type of account that is reported on this Form 1099-SA.
