If you think your statement is wrong or if you have questions about the information on the statement, telephone or write us as soon as you can. (The address and telephone number are listed below.) We must hear from you no later than 60 days after we sent you the FIRST Statement on which the error or problem appeared.

- Tell us your name and account number.
- Describe the error or the transfer you are unsure about, and explain as clearly as you can why you believe there is an error or why you need more information.
- Tell us the dollar amount of the suspected error.
- We will investigate your complaint and will correct any error promptly. If we take more than 10 business days to do this, we will credit your account for the amount you think is in error, so that you will have the use of the money during the time it takes us to complete our investigation.

Health savings accounts (HSAs) and Medicare Advantage Medical Savings Accounts (MSAs) are individual accounts offered or administered by Optum Bank[®], Member FDIC, and are subject to eligibility requirements and restrictions on deposits and withdrawals to avoid IRS penalties. State taxes may apply. Fees may reduce earnings on account. This communication is not intended as legal, investment or tax advice. Federal and state laws and regulations are subject to change.

Mutual fund investment options may vary by specific HSA or MSA program, including investment options chosen by you on a self-directed basis, your employer or by a particular independent registered investment adviser ("RIA"). If you would like additional information about the investment options available to your HSA or MSA program and the RIA, if any, you may call us at the number on the back of your debit card. Shares are offered through Charles Schwab & Co., Inc., a registered broker-dealer. Orders are accepted to effect transactions in securities only as an accommodation to HSA and MSA owners. Optum Bank is not a broker-dealer or RIA, and does not provide investment advice or research concerning securities, make recommendations concerning securities, or otherwise solicit securities transactions.

Investments are not FDIC insured, are not bank issued or guaranteed by Optum Financial or its subsidiaries, including Optum Bank, and are subject to risk including fluctuations in value and the possible loss of the principal amount invested.
