Before you check Box A, B, or C below, see whether you received any Form(s) 1099-B or substitute statement(s) from your broker. A substitute statement will have the same information as Form 1099-B. Either will show whether your basis (usually your cost) was reported to the IRS by your broker and may even tell you which box to check.

Short-Term. Transactions involving capital assets you held 1 year or less are generally short-term (see instructions). For long-term transactions, see page 2.

Note: You may aggregate all short-term transactions reported on Form(s) 1099-B showing basis was reported to the IRS and for which no adjustments or codes are required. Enter the totals directly on Schedule D, line 1a; you aren't required to report these transactions on Form 8949 (see instructions).

You must check Box A, B, or C below. Check only one box. If more than one box applies for your short-term transactions, complete a separate Form 8949, page 1, for each applicable box. If you have more short-term transactions than will fit on this page for one or more of the boxes, complete as many forms with the same box checked as you need.

| Enter the name and Social Security number for each member of your tax household. Check the box for every month each person had minimum essential health coverage or qualified for an exemption (part-year residents include only months as a New Jersey resident). If an individual qualified for an exemption, enter the exemption number. (See instructions for line 53c, NJ-1040.) If an individual has more than one exemption number, check the box. If you need more space, enclose a statement listing any additional individuals. |   |         |        |        |      |     |  |         |           |          |          |        | rsey   |         |          |            |          |
