If you are a member of a combined group, you may be receiving this notice because the reporting entity for this group has failed to meet the franchise tax requirement shown above. All members of the combined group are subject to forfeiture of their right to transact business in Texas. Please contact the reporting entity to resolve this issue. (Texas Tax Code Section 171.1014)

What you need to do:

- File the original franchise tax report, even if no tax is due
- File a complete, signed Public Information Report (Form 05-102) or Ownership Information Report (Form 05-167).
- Pay any calculated tax due, plus penalties and interest. Statutory penalty is 5% of tax due if paid between 1 and 30 days after the due date; 10% of tax due if paid 31 or more days after the due date. There is also a $50 late filing penalty.
- Interest accrues on all unpaid taxes beginning on the 61st day after the due date. Interest rates may vary on a yearly basis. Please refer to the interest rates on our website at www.comptroller.texas.gov/taxes/file-pay/interest.php, or call 877-447-2834 for the applicable yearly rate.
- Add an additional 10% jeopardy determination penalty if paid after 09/15/2022.
- See the back of this notice for information about ending franchise tax responsibility, collection actions we may take and verifying account status of the entity.

Texas law requires the Comptroller to forfeit an entity's right to transact business in Texas if the entity does not file all missing franchise tax report form(s) and pay any franchise tax or penalty due within 45 days of the date this notice is mailed. This notice is given in accordance with Texas Tax Code Sections 171.251, 171.2515 and 171.256. These provisions do not apply to banking corporations or savings and loan associations.

If your right to transact business is forfeited, the entity's officers, directors, partners, members or owners may become liable for debts of the entity (including taxes, penalties and interest) incurred after the due date of the report and/or payment. Also, the entity may be unable to sue or defend in a court of this state in accordance with the law. Notice is given in accordance with provisions of Texas Tax Code Sections 171.251, 171.2515, 171.252, 171.253, 171.254 and 171.255.

Taxpayer Rights Summary

If you do not agree with the tax/fee on this notice, you may file a request on or before 09/15/2022 for a hearing. Your request must be filed with this office and include a statement which lists the specific reasons you disagree. (See the back of this notice for procedures for handling disagreements.) If you do not request a hearing and you fail to pay the amount due, several actions may be initiated to protect the interests of the state. These include, but are not limited to, the following: filing of tax liens; filing suit for injunction and/or judgment, withholding of state-issued warrants; freezing of assets; seizure and sale of properties. (Texas Tax Code Sections 111.001, 111.010, 111.011, 111.017, 111.021, 111.022 and 113.001) Accounts referred to a collection agency will also be subject to an additional collection fee of up to 30% of the amount due. (Texas Gov't Code Section 2107.003)
