IRS Form 1099-INT — Interest Income:

The amounts in this section of your Tax Information Statement reflect interest paid to you during 2023.

Payment Date. The payment date for the interest payments are displayed above the details. A payment amount may be prorated across multiple lots. If there are multiple lots for a payment, a payment total is provided after the details. The payment total will match the interest paid on the noted payment date.

Lot Quantity. This column includes the amount of fixed income or debt instruments purchased in one transaction. If you purchased the same security on different dates, each purchase creates a separate lot along with the corresponding number of bonds.

Acquisition Date/Original Cost Basis. The acquisition date represents the date you acquired the security or, for short sales, the date you opened the short sale. In the absence of cost basis amounts, the acquisition date is the transfer date of the security. The Original Cost Basis represents the amount that you originally paid for the bond or units and has not been adjusted for return of principal, amortization or accretion.

Period Begin/End Date. The beginning and end date of the accrual period.

Cost Basis at Beginning/End of Period. Amount represents the purchase price adjusted for return of principal distributions, amortization, and accretion at the beginning and end of an accrual period.

Box 1—Interest Income. Interest earned from U.S. corporations, U.S. government agencies, foreign sources and credit interest is included in Box 1.

Box 3—Interest on U.S. Savings Bonds and Treasury Obligations. Interest earned from U.S. savings bonds, Treasury bills, Treasury bonds and Treasury notes. This interest income is exempt from state and local income taxes and is reported in Box 3. This income is not included in Box 1.

Box 5—Investment Expenses. The amount reported in this box represents your share of investment expenses of a single-class real estate mortgage investment conduit (REMIC). Your share of a Unit Investment Trust's (UIT) or a Widely Held Fixed Investment Trust's (WHFIT) expenses is also reported in Box 5. These expenses are included in Box 1. Note: This amount is not deductible.

Box 6—Foreign Tax Paid. This box shows foreign tax paid. You may be able to claim this tax as a deduction or a credit on your IRS Form 1040. See the Additional Information section of these instructions.

Box 10—Market Discount. If you made an election under section 1278(b) to include market discount in income as it accrues and you notified your payer of the election, this shows the market discount that accrued on the debt instrument during the year while held by you. Report this amount on your income tax return as directed in the instructions for Form 1040. The market discount will be displayed for both covered and noncovered transactions. Market discount amounts will only be reported to the IRS for covered transactions.

Nominee Recipients. If your truncated Social Security number or Employer Identification Number is shown on your Tax Information Statement, and the statement includes amounts belonging to another person, you are considered a nominee recipient. Generally, you must file IRS Form 1099 for each of the other owners, showing the income allocable to each. File the applicable IRS Form 1099, along with IRS Form 1096 (Annual Summary and Transmittal of U.S. Information Returns), with the IRS center in your area. List yourself as the payer on IRS Form 1099 and as the filer on IRS Form 1096. List the other owner(s) as the recipient(s) on IRS Form 1099. You must provide a copy of each IRS Form 1099 you file to the other owner(s). Spouses are not required to file a nominee return to show amounts owned by their spouse.

Payer. The payer for all transactions on your Tax Information Statement is Pershing LLC (Taxpayer Identification Number 13-2741729). This name and Taxpayer Identification Number should be listed wherever the payer's name is requested on an IRS form with respect to amounts reported on your Tax Information Statement.

Corrections. Please review your Tax Information Statement. If it is incorrect, contact your advisor or financial organization. If necessary, we will promptly correct the information provided to the IRS and mail a Revised Tax Information Statement to you. After the initial mailing, revised statements will begin mailing in February and will be mailed at least weekly from March through the end of June. If an income correction is made to your account after issuing your tax statement and the correction is an increase or decrease of less than $100 of income, we may not send you a revised tax statement. If you would like to receive revisions that are less than $100, please contact your investment professional.

Federal Income Tax Withheld. Federal income tax withheld is 24% of interest, dividends and proceeds from broker and barter exchange transactions, and could be reported in any of these sections of your Tax Information Statement. Backup withholding applies when certain conditions exist. If this Tax Information Statement reflects backup withholding, you may need to provide a new IRS Form W-9 (Request for Taxpayer Identification Number and Certification). See IRS Form W-9 for information on backup withholding and how to furnish your Taxpayer Identification Number.

State and Local Tax Reporting. We are required to provide information to a number of state and local jurisdictions. We report information to California, Connecticut, Massachusetts, Minnesota, New York and Rhode Island concerning municipal bond interest income earned by state residents from bonds not issued by these states. We report certain 1099 information directly to Delaware, District of Columbia, Maine, Massachusetts, Mississippi, Montana, Oregon and Rhode Island. For 2023, we withheld, remitted and reported state income tax for California, Maine and Vermont according to the requirements of those states. We also provided tax information to Puerto Rico as required by the Puerto Rico taxing authority. Check with your tax professional for your specific state and local tax reporting requirements.

Cost Basis Adjustments. There are times when your cost basis reported from a broker will not match your calculations for reporting purposes. IRS Form 8949 allows you and the IRS to reconcile amounts that were reported to you and the IRS on IRS Form 1099-B with the amounts you report on your return.

Important Note Concerning Cost Basis. Your original cost basis for each security affects much of the reporting in this document. You should pay special attention to the basis of any item where we received the basis from you or a third party. If the original basis shown in this tax document is not correct, then the results of our calculations will likewise produce incorrect results. The IRS requires us to remind you that the taxpayer is ultimately responsible for the accuracy of your tax return.

Form 2439. If you held shares in a mutual fund or REIT that paid tax on undistributed long-term capital gains, we will issue IRS Form 2439 (Notice to Shareholder of Undistributed Long-Term Capital Gains) to you. This information is provided after the close of the mutual fund's or the REIT's tax year and will be sent to you shortly after the information becomes available.

Foreign Tax Paid. Your Tax Information Statement may include foreign tax paid (withheld) from foreign source dividends and interest credited to your account during 2023. This information allows you to calculate and claim a foreign tax credit or deduction on your tax return, if you are eligible to do so. A foreign tax credit can be claimed either on IRS Form 1116 (Foreign Tax Credit) or, in some circumstances, by reporting it directly on IRS Form 1040, Schedule A (Itemized Deductions). See instructions for both IRS Form 1116 and IRS Form 1040 for additional information on foreign tax credits and deductions. Foreign tax paid is reported in the Form 1099-DIV sections of your Tax Information Statement. A foreign tax credit may be claimed only if the tax was legally owed and not eligible for a refund.
