YOU MAY BE ABLE TO REDUCE YOUR FEDERAL INCOME TAX LIABILITY

NOTICE TO STUDENT: You may be able to reduce your federal income tax liability by claiming the American Opportunity or Lifetime Learning Education Tax Credit. These tax benefits apply to the tuition and related expenses (a) paid by you or on your behalf in 2023. The information provided below is a summary of the information on file at your college or university regarding qualified tuition and related expense payments, as well as any scholarships and grants you received. This information may be of use to you in calculating the amount of the tax credit you may be eligible to claim, but your personal financial records serve as the official supporting documentation for your federal income tax return. Note: To claim the American Opportunity or Lifetime Learning Tax Credit IRS Form 8863 is required. (Additional detail is available at www.tsc1098t.com.)

If you are claimed as a dependent on another person's tax return (such as your parent's return), please give this notice to that person.

The American Opportunity Tax Credit may be claimed by eligible single tax filers with a maximum modified adjusted gross income (MAGI) of $90,000 or by joint tax filers with a maximum MAGI of up to $180,000. The Lifetime Learning Tax Credit may be claimed by eligible single tax filers with a maximum modified adjusted gross income (MAGI) of up to $90,000 or by joint tax filers with a maximum MAGI of up to $180,000. Please visit www.irs.gov for the most recent information.

The school listed above and the Tab Service Company are unable to provide individual income tax advice. Please contact the Internal Revenue Service at 1-800-829-1040 or your personal tax advisor for further information relating to your eligibility for and/or calculation of these tax benefits.

⁽a) "Qualified Tuition and Related Expenses": The expenses reported on this form must be required by and paid to the institution for enrollment purposes. They include tuition and certain fees; they do not include books, room and board, athletics (unless part of the students degree program), insurance, equipment, transportation, or other similar personal living expenses. As a result, the amount of Qualified Tuition and Related Expenses listed above will likely be less than the total amount of money you have paid to the school providing this notice. Additional detail may be available at www.tsc1098t.com. Prepaid Qualified Tuition and Related Expenses are payments received for qualified tuition and related expenses in 2023 that relate to the academic period January through March 2023.

⁽b) Important information regarding "Scholarships and Grants": Some portion of your Scholarships and Grants may be subject to income tax. Please consult with the IRS or your tax advisor to determine the taxability of your Scholarships and Grants and how such amounts may affect the amount of your education tax credit. For additional information on these issues, please reference IRS Notice 97-60: Consumer Guidance on Education Tax Incentives and IRS Publication 970: Tax Benefits for Higher Education. These documents, as well copies of IRS Form 8863 can be obtained at the IRS web site, www.irs.gov, or by calling the IRS at 1-800-829-1040.

⁽c) "Adjustments to Prior Tax Year Amounts" represent transactions processed in Tax Year 2023 that may affect your transactions for a prior tax year. If amounts are shown in these sections, and if the American Opportunity or Lifetime Learning Tax Credit was claimed by you or on your behalf for a prior tax year, please refer to the Instructions for IRS Form 8863 or IRS Publication 970 regarding how such amounts must be accounted for on your current year tax return.
