Before you check Box A, B, or C below, see whether you received any Form(s) 1099-B or substitute statement(s) from your broker. A substitute statement will have the same information as Form 1099-B. Either will show whether your basis (usually your cost) was reported to the IRS by your broker and may even tell you which box to check.

Part I Short-Term. Transactions involving capital assets you held 1 year or less are generally short-term (see instructions). For long-term transactions, see page 2.

Note: You may aggregate all short-term transactions reported on Form(s) 1099-B showing basis was reported to the IRS and for which no adjustments or codes are required. Enter the totals directly on Schedule D, line 1a; you aren't required to report these transactions on Form 8949 (see instructions).

You must check Box A, B, or C below. Check only one box. If more than one box applies for your short-term transactions, complete a separate Form 8949, page 1, for each applicable box. If you have more short-term transactions than will fit on this page for one or more of the boxes, complete as many forms with the same box checked as you need.

Before you check Box A, B, or C below, see whether you received any Form(s) 1099-B or substitute statement(s) from your broker. A substitute statement will have the same information as Form 1099-B. Either will show whether your basis (usually your cost) was reported to the IRS by your broker and may even tell you which box to check.

Part I Short-Term. Transactions involving capital assets you held 1 year or less are generally short-term (see instructions). For long-term transactions, see page 2.

Note: You may aggregate all short-term transactions reported on Form(s) 1099-B showing basis was reported to the IRS and for which no adjustments or codes are required. Enter the totals directly on Schedule D, line 1a; you aren't required to report these transactions on Form 8949 (see instructions).

You must check Box A, B, or C below. Check only one box. If more than one box applies for your short-term transactions, complete a separate Form 8949, page 1, for each applicable box. If you have more short-term transactions than will fit on this page for one or more of the boxes, complete as many forms with the same box checked as you need.

My request for direct deposit of my refund, or direct debit of the amount I owe, includes my authorization for the Indiana Department of Revenue to furnish my financial institution with my routing number, account number, account type, and social security number to ensure my refund or payment is properly processed.

Part III. Declaration

If I have filed a balance due return, I understand that if the DOR does not receive full and timely payment of my tax liability, I will remain liable for the tax liability and all applicable interest and penalties.

Under penalties of perjury, I declare that the amounts in Part I above agree with the amounts on the corresponding lines of the electronic portion of my 2022 income tax return. To the best of my knowledge and belief, my return is true, correct and complete. I consent to allow my transmitter to send my return, this declaration, and accompanying schedules and statements to the DOR. I also consent to the DOR sending an acknowledgement of receipt of transmission and an indication of whether or not my return is accepted, and, if rejected, the reason(s) for the rejection.

In addition, by using a computer system and software to prepare and transmit my return electronically, I consent to the disclosure to the DOR of all information pertaining to my use of the system and software and to the transmission of my tax return electronically.
