For Form 1098-CMA, 1098-E, 1098-T, 1098-C, 1099-A, 1099-B, 1099-C, 1099-CAP, 1099-DIV, 1099-G, 1099-INT, 1099-LTC, 1099-MISC, 1099-OID, 1099-Q, 1099-S, 1099-SA, 5498, 5498-ESA, and 5498-SA

This is important tax information and is being furnished to the Internal Revenue Service. If you are required to file a return, a negligence penalty or other sanction may be imposed on you if this income is taxable and the IRS determines that it has not been reported.

Form 1098-CMA. This may not be the correct figure to report on your income tax return. See instructions on the back.

Form 1098 - Caution: The amount shown may not be fully deductible by you. Limits based on the loan amount and the cost and value of the secured property may apply. Also, you may only deduct interest to the extent it was incurred by you, actually paid by you, and not reimbursed by another person.

Form 1098 - This information in boxes 1 through 10 is important tax information and is being furnished to the Internal Revenue Service. If you are required to file a return, a negligence penalty or other sanction may be imposed on you if the IRS determines that an underpayment of tax results because you overstated a deduction for this mortgage interest or for these points, reported in boxes 1 and 6; or because you didn't report the refund of interest (box 4); or because you claimed a non-deductible item.

Form 1098-E. Student loan interest received by you from borrowers totaling $600 or more during the year on one or more qualified student loans must be reported by you.

If you are an individual, you may be able to deduct the student loan interest you actually paid in 2017 on your income tax return. However, you may not be able to deduct the full amount of interest reported on this form. See the Student Loan Interest Deduction Worksheet in your Form 1040 or 1040A instructions.

Payer's/borrower's taxpayer identification number. For your protection, this form may show only the last four digits of your social security number (SSN), individual taxpayer identification number (ITIN), adoption taxpayer identification number (ATIN), or employer identification number (EIN). However, the issuer has reported your complete identification number to the IRS.

Account number. May show an account or other unique number the lender has assigned to distinguish your account.

Box 1. Shows the mortgage interest received by the recipient/lender during the year. This amount includes interest on any obligation secured by real property, including a home equity line of credit, or credit card loan. This amount does not include points, government subsidy payments, or seller payments on a "buydown" mortgage. Such amounts are deductible by you only in certain circumstances. Caution: If you prepaid interest in 2017 that accrued in full by January 15, 2018, this prepaid interest may be included in box 1. However, you cannot deduct the prepaid amount in 2017 even though it may be included in box 1. If you hold a mortgage credit certificate and can claim the mortgage interest credit, see Form 8396. If the interest was paid on a mortgage secured by your main home equity, line of credit, or credit card loan secured by your personal residence, you may be subject to a deduction limitation.
