Notice to Employee

Do you have to file? Refer to the Form 1040 instructions to determine if you are required to file a tax return. Even if you do not have to file a tax return, you may be eligible for a refund if you show an amount of tax you are eligible for a refund.

Earned income credit (EIC). You may be able to take the EIC for 2017 if your adjusted gross income (AGI) is less than a certain amount. The amount of the credit is based on your age and family size. Workers without children could qualify for a smaller credit. You and any qualifying or alien must have valid social security numbers (SSNs). You cannot take the EIC if your dependent income is more than the specified amount for 2017 or if income is earned for services provided while you were an inmate at a penal institution. For 2017 income limits and more information, visit irs.gov/efile. Also see Pub. 596, Earned Income Credit. Any EIC that is more than your tax liability is refunded to you, but only if you file a tax return.

Clergy and religious workers. If you were subject to social security and Medicare taxes, see 11b(1) for Social Security and General Information for Members of the Clergy and Religious Workers.

Corrections. If your name, SSN, or address is incorrect, correct Copies B, C, and D and ask your employer to correct your employment record. Do not file your Form W-2 with Form W-2-Corrected Wage and Tax Statement with the Social Security Administration (SSA) to correct any name, SSN, or money amount error reported to the SSA on Form W-2. Be sure to get your copies of Form W-2 from your employer for all corrections made so you may file them with your tax return. If your name and SSN are correct but aren't the same as shown on your social security card, you should ask for a new card that displays your correct name at any SSA office or by calling 1-800-772-1213. You also may visit the SSA at www.SSA.gov.

Cost of employer-sponsored health coverage (if such cost is provided by the employer). Tax-exempt. A taxable amount of the cost of employer-sponsored health coverage is not taxable.

Credit for excess taxes. If you had more than one employer in 2017 and more than 50% of the social security and Medicare 2017 railroad retirement (RRTA) taxes were withheld, you may be able to claim a credit for the excess against your federal income tax. If you had more than one railroad employer and more than $4,620 of 2017 RRTA tax was withheld, you also may be able to claim a credit. See your Form 1040 or Form 1040A instructions and 11b(5), 505, Tax Withholding and Estimated Tax.

Instructions for Employee

- Box 1. Enter this amount on the wages line of your tax return.
- Box 2. Enter this amount on the federal income tax withheld line of your tax return.
- Box 5. You may be required to report this amount on Form 8559, Additional Medicare Tax. See Form 1040 instructions to determine if you are required to complete Form 8559.
- Box 6. This amount includes the 1.45% Medicare Tax withheld on all Medicare wages and tips shown in Box 1, as well as the 0.9% Additional Medicare Tax on any of those Medicare wages and tips above $200,000.
- Box 8. This amount is not included in boxes 1, 3, 5, or 7 for information on how to report income on your tax return. See how Form 1040 instructions include Form 4137, Social Security and Medicare Tax on Reported Tip Income, with your annual tax return to report at least the allocated tip amount unless you can prove that you received a smaller amount. If you have received this tax on a tip, you must report that amount when it is included in your adjusted taxable income on Form 1040. You will calculate the Social Security and Medicare tax owed on the allocated tips shown on your Form W-2 that you must report as income and on other tips you did not report to your employer. By filing Form 4137, your social security tip will be included to your social security record used to figure your benefits.
- Box 9. If you are e-filing and there is a code in this box, enter it when prompted by your software. This code assists the IRS in validating the W-2 data submitted with your return. This code is not entered on paper-filed returns.
- Box 10. This amount is the total dependent care benefits that your employer paid to you or incurred on your behalf (including amounts from a section 125 cafeteria plan). Any amount over $5,000 is also included in box 1. Complete Form 2441, Child and Dependent Care Expenses, to compute any taxable and nontaxable amounts.
- Box 11. This amount is (a) reported in box 1 if it is a distribution made to you from a nonqualified deferred compensation or non-governmental section 457(b) plan or (b) included in box 3 and/or 4 if it is a prior year deferral under a nonqualified or section 457(b) plan that became taxable for social security and Medicare to you this year because there is no longer a substantial risk of forfeiture of your right to the deferred amount. This box should not be used if you had a deferral and a distribution in the same calendar year. If you made a deferral and received a distribution in the same calendar year, you are or will be age 59½ by the end of the calendar year, your employer should file Form SSA-731, Employer Report of Special Wage Payments with the Social Security Administration and give you a copy.
- Box 12. The following list explains the codes shown in box 12. You may need this information to complete your tax return. Elective deferrals (codes D, E, F, and G) and designated Roth contributions (codes AA, BB, and CC) for all plans are generally limited to a total of $18,000 ($17,000 if you only have SIMPLE plans, $17,000 for section 457(b) plans if you qualify for the 15-year rule explained in Pub. 7872). Deferrals under made-to-go are limited to $15,000. Deferrals under code L are limited to $1,000.

- Code A. If you were at least age 20 in 2017, your employer may have allowed an additional deferral of up to $5,000 ($3,000 for section 401(k), 408(a), and 408(b) SIMPLE plans). This additional deferral amount is not subject to the overall limit on elective deferrals. For code G, the limit on elective deferrals may be higher for the last 3 years before you reach retirement age. Contact your plan administrator for more information. Amounts in excess of the overall elective deferral limit must be included in income. See the Wages, Salaries, Tips, etc. line instructions for Form 1040.
- Note. If a year follows only D through H, G, Y, AA, BB, or FF, you made a make-up prior-year contribution for a prior year(s) when you were initially enrolled. To figure whether you made excess deferrals, consider these amounts for the year shown, not the current year. If no year is shown, the contributions are for the current year.
- AA—Designated Roth contributions under a governmental section 457(b) plan. Include this tax on Form 1040. See Other Taxes in the Form 1040 instructions.
- BB—Designated Roth contributions under a non-governmental section 457(b) plan. Include the tax on Form 1040. See Other Taxes in the Form 1040 instructions.
