NOTICE TO CUSTOMERS

Apex is a member of the New York Stock Exchange and various other exchanges. Apex acts as clearing agent for your trades.

As required under SEC rules, both the Firm's Order Routing Report as well as information regarding specific order routing information is available free of charge upon request.

Your account, which was introduced to us by your broker or bank, is established under your name on a "fully disclosed" basis at Apex. As a clearing agent, we provide securities clearance and may provide order execution on you broker's or bank's instructions.

You will remain a customer of your broker or bank. Apex will not be involved with or have any responsibility for decisions regarding securities transactions in your account. Your broker or bank will be responsible for opening, approving and monitoring all activities in connection with your account. The entry of orders, and any instructions regarding the deposit or withdrawal of securities or monies should be made through your broker or bank.

In addition to the above mentioned services, Apex will provide cashiering services, safeguarding of funds and securities while in Apex's possession, monitoring compliance with applicable credit Regulation T and Apex's internal policies, preparing and mailing your account records (including transaction confirmations and periodic statements of your account).

Interest charges to your account will be based on the size and net debit balance during the interest period. These rates are subject to revision without notice in accordance with any changes in the broker call loan rate, as published in the Wall Street Journal. For more complete information regarding interest charged to customers, consult the Truth in Lending Notice which is made available through your broker or bank.

Apex is a member of the Financial Industry Regulatory Authority. Inc. ("FINRA") and we are required to inform you of the availability of the FINRA Investor Brochure, which contains information on FINRA BrokerCheck. You may contact FINRA at 800-289-9999 or at their website at www.finra.org. Apex carries your account and acts as your custodian for funds and securities deposited with us directly by you, through your brokerage firm or bank or as a result of transactions we process for your account.
